++ Valid for broadcast between 0600 and 1800

Headline:
Settled this weekend but chilly with overnight frost.

Today:
A cold and frosty start for many, with conditions largely dry throughout the day. The best of any sunny spells will be in the morning, as clouds continue building up into the afternoon. Maximum temperature 8 deg C (46 deg F).

Tonight:
Remaining dry with clouds breaking up, allowing for some clear spells during the night. Feeling cold with further frost likely. Minimum temperature -1 deg C (30 deg F).

Sunday:
Feeling chilly during the morning with frost from the previous night, but another fine and dry day with bright spells. Maximum temperature 9 deg C (48 deg F).

Outlook for Monday to Wednesday:
Remaining dry on Monday with bright spells. Patchy rain on Tuesday. Strong winds and outbreaks of rain, potentially heavy on Wednesday, with a risk of gales along coasts.
